

Justus Felix Wehmer

Justus Felix Wehmer, born in 1965, has been Chief Financial Officer of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG since October 2018.

He previously served as Co-Head of the Microscopy business group and Managing Director of Carl Zeiss Microscopy GmbH beginning in 2015.

From 2013 until 2015, Justus Felix Wehmer headed Carl Zeiss Jena GmbH. Prior to this, he was Vice President of finance and strategy and general manager of NXP Semiconductors Germany GmbH in Hamburg.

He joined ZEISS in 2002 and worked at the company until 2012 – initially as Senior Vice President for Finance at the Industrial Metrology business group and, from 2007, he held the same position at the Semiconductor Manufacturing Technology business group.

Justus Felix Wehmer studied business administration at the Academy of Business and Administration in Essen and was awarded a Master of Business Administration (MBA) by the London Business School in 1995.