

Carl Zeiss Meditec AG

Göschwitzer Straße 51-52

07745 Jena

Germany

Renè Denner

Employee representative on the Supervisory Board of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG

Full time Chairman of the Jena Works Council. Chairman of the General Works Council of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG

After training as a nurse at the Robert Koch Hospital in Apolda and subsequently studying medical technology at the University of Applied Sciences in Jena, Renè Denner began his professional career in 2006 in the Development department at the medical technology division of ZEISS in Jena. Renè Denner first worked as a laboratory engineer and later as a project manager in Advanced Development, before moving to Systems Engineering as a systems engineer in 2012. Since 2014, Renè Denner has been working as a systems engineer in the Therapeutic Lasers development program.

He has been involved in the Works Council of the ZEISS Medical Technology Division since 2012. Renè Denner was born in Apolda in 1980, is married and has 4 children.

Stations of his professional career

- 2019 Election as Chairman of the Works Council of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG at the Jena site and Election as Chairman of the Group Works Council of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG
- 2014 systems engineer in Therapeutic Lasers development program at Carl Zeiss Meditec AG
- 2012 Systems engineer in Systems Engineering at Carl Zeiss Meditec AG
- 2012 Member of the Works Council at the Jena site
- 2007 Project Manager in Advanced Development at Carl Zeiss Meditec AG
- 2006 Joined R&D as laboratory engineer at Carl Zeiss Meditec AG
- 2001 Graduate engineer studies of medical technology at the University of Applied Sciences Jena
- 1998 Training as a state-certified nurse at the Robert Koch Hospital Apolda