

Dr. Markus Guthoff

Chief Representative, NATIONAL-BANK AG, Essen

Markus Guthoff began his professional career in 1993 at IKB Deutsche Industriebank AG, after completing his degree in Business Administration and Economics. Following various positions within the Corporate Finance division, including Director of Corporate Development and Head of the Berlin branch, he was appointed as a member of the bank's Managing Board in 2001. In his six and a half years of Board membership he was responsible e.g. for the areas of Private Equity, Organization and IT, Risk Management and Structured Finance.

After his departure from IKB, Markus Guthoff worked as an independent management consultant in 2008, before joining Interseroh SE, Cologne, in 2009, as Chief Representative and a member of the Management Committee, There he was responsible for M&A, Treasury and Accounting and Tax. Markus Guthoff was CFO of the ALBA group, Berlin, from 2011 to 2017. The ALBA Group is one of the world's leading recycling and environmental service providers, and raw materials suppliers.

Since March 1, 2017, MG has been working for NATIONAL-BANK AG, headquartered in Essen; until August 2018 as general representative, responsible for Corporate Customer Business. Since September 2018 he is a member of the Management Board and primarily responsible for the Bank's market divisions. NATIONAL-BANK is one of Germany's leading regional banks for high-end private and corporate customers.