

Renè Denner

Full time Chairman of the Jena Works Council. Chairman of the General Works Council of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG

Renè Denner began his professional career in 2006 in the Development department at Carl Zeiss Meditec AG in Jena after obtaining a nursing qualification at the Robert Koch Hospital in Apolda and completing a subsequent degree in Medical Engineering at the Jena University of Applied Sciences.

He worked first as a laboratory engineer and later as a project manager in Advanced Development. In 2012 Denner became a systems engineer in the Systems Engineering department.

Since 2014 Renè Denner has worked as a systems engineer in the Therapeutic Lasers development program. He has been a member of the Works Council of Carl Zeiss Meditec AG since 2012.

Renè Denner was born in Apolda in 1980, is married and has 4 children.