

Carl Zeiss AG

Carl-Zeiss-Strasse 22
73447 Oberkochen
Germany

Andreas Pecher

Member of the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group with responsibility for the Semiconductor Manufacturing Technology Segment

Andreas Pecher became Member of the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group in 2022 and heads the Semiconductor Manufacturing Technology segment. In addition, he is in the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group responsible for Patents and the Shared Production Unit, and oversees the Korea sales region. He also holds the position of President and CEO of Carl Zeiss SMT GmbH.

Andreas Pecher was born on 11 May 1971 in Würzburg, Germany. He studied physics at the University of Texas at Austin, USA, and graduated in 1994 (Master of Arts). In 1997 he graduated from the University of Würzburg (Diploma). In 2005 he also completed an MBA at the Kellogg School of Management in Illinois, USA and an MEM at the Northwestern University in Illinois, USA.

Milestones in his career

- 2022 Appointment to the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group, President & CEO of the ZEISS Semiconductor Manufacturing Technology segment
- 2017 President of the strategic business unit ZEISS Semiconductor Manufacturing Optics
- 2015 Senior Vice President of the strategic business unit ZEISS Semiconductor Mask Solutions
- 2013 Joins ZEISS as Vice President of Strategic Business Development at the ZEISS segment Semiconductor Manufacturing Technology
- 2010 Vice President Strategic Development at Renewable Energy Cooperation in Oslo, Norway and Munich, Germany
- 2004 Management Consultant at McKinsey & Company, Inc., Munich, Germany
- 1998 Manufacturing Device Engineer & Senior Integrated Circuit Design Engineer at Motorola Inc., Austin, USA